RE: Docket No. 2007-1-E

Dear Mr. Terreni:

Enclosed is Carolina Power & Light Company's d/b/a Progress Energy Carolinas, Inc.'s ("PEC") objection to Nucor-Steel South Carolina's ("Nucor") Second Set of Continuing Data Requests to PEC in this docket. PEC objects on the grounds that this request is in violation of Rule 33 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure that limits the number of interrogatories to 50, including subparts, unless authorized by the South Carolina Public Service Commission. Nucor has obtained no such authorization.

All parties have been served.

Very truly yours,

RE: Docket No. 2007-1-E

Dear Garrett:

On March 30, 2007, Nucor-Steel South Carolina ("Nucor") submitted to Progress Energy-Carolinas ("PEC") in the subject docket Nucor's First Set of Continuing Data Requests containing more than 200 interrogatories, including subparts. Now, on April 19, 2007, Nucor has submitted to PEC Nucor's Second Set of Continuing Data Requests containing more than 100 interrogatories, including subparts.

Just as with Nucor's First Set of Continuing Data Requests, PEC objects to Nucor's Second Set of Continuing Data Requests to PEC on the grounds that this request is in violation of Rule 33 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure that limits the number of interrogatories to 50, including subparts, unless authorized by the South Carolina Public Service Commission. Nucor has obtained no such authorization. Given this objection, PEC will not respond to the second set of data requests.

Very truly yours,
